

Cellex Symposium 2026

Consent to Recording, Photography, and Publication

- I consent to photographs and recordings being made during the event in which I may be visible or audible.
- I agree that such photographs and recordings may be used, stored, reproduced, and published for documentation, reporting, communication, and public relations purposes on internal platforms and publicly accessible channels.
- I understand that I may withdraw my consent at any time with effect for the future. However, complete removal of content that has already been published on publicly accessible sources may not be technically feasible in all cases.
